In pursuant to Governor Whitmer's Executive Order 2020-21, the following staff members are designated to enter Sturgis District Library under sections of said order: Primary: Todd Reed; Secondary/backup: Jackie Milliman. Furthermore, the Sturgis District Library Board President is designated to appear for signing checks and any virtual board meetings: Betty Ross. Actions performed are deemed minimum basic operations by the Library Director.

Portions of Executive Order 2020-21 that specifically apply:

7. Exceptions.

- a. Individuals may leave their home or place of residence, and travel as necessary:
 1. To engage in outdoor activity, including walking, hiking, running, cycling, or any other recreational activity consistent with remaining at least six feet from people from outside the individual's household.
 2. To perform their jobs as critical infrastructure workers after being so designated by their employers. (Critical infrastructure workers who need not be designated under section 5(a) may leave their home for work without a designation.)
 3. To conduct minimum basic operations, as described in section 4(b), after being designated to perform such work by their employers.

4. To perform necessary government activities, as described in section 6.

6. All in-person government activities at whatever level (state, county, or local) that are not necessary to sustain or protect life, or to supporting those businesses and operations that are necessary to sustain or protect life, are suspended.

- c. For purposes of this order, necessary government activities include minimum basic operations, as described in section 4(b). Workers performing such activities need not be designated.
